Income-Producing Investment – Accrington Town Centre

An excellent opportunity to acquire a well-positioned, income-generating commercial property in the heart of Accrington town centre.

This substantial two-storey commercial unit, prominently located on Union Street, is currently let and producing a strong rental income of £9,600 per annum, offering immediate return on investment.

The property is occupied by an established tenant operating a music tuition and rehearsal business. The tenant is part way through a six-year licence agreement expiring in June 2029, subject to a tenant break option at 36 months (not currently triggered), providing ongoing income stability.

Strategically situated within close proximity to the Arndale Shopping Centre and Accrington Bus Station, the property benefits from excellent footfall and strong surrounding commercial activity. Nearby national occupiers include Subway, Santander, Boots, EE and Poundland, alongside a range of well-supported independent retailers.

Accrington forms part of the Hyndburn borough in Lancashire and enjoys excellent connectivity. The town lies approximately 4 miles east of Blackburn, 13 miles east of Preston and 20 miles north of Manchester. It benefits from strong public transport links via bus and rail services, together with convenient access to Junction 7 of the M65 motorway, providing direct connections to the M6 motorway network.

The property falls within Use Class E, offering flexibility for a range of commercial uses (subject to any necessary consents).
