Description

This stunning period property is now available to market and stands as a proud example of a historic home, rich in charm and bespoke character and generous in proportions, there are few opportunities in Grimsby to obtain a family home of such rare and precious appeal.

Lovingly maintained over decades of ca ownership, this property possesses a range of natural advantages that hold it above more modern equivalents. Not least is its central location. Enviably situated in walking distance from the popular Weelsby Woods park and a short commute from the town centre itself and the full spectrum of amenities that it has to offer.

The enclosed corner plot offers a range of mature, neatly landscaped and private spaces as well as a gated drive and double length, brick built garage which offers the ideal solution for outdoor storage needs, home gym or workshop.

The house itself is a treasure trove of period charm and elegant aesthetics. Reception space is well catered for in the form of a well-appointed lounge which enjoys a majestic corner bay window, a separate dining/sitting room which has been most recently employed as an extensive home office and an expansive kitchen/diner which can easily accommodate even a larger family while further impressive with its large and stylish fitted kitchen.

Further convenience is available in the form of a downstairs w/c as well as a large understairs storage cupboard which also houses the fully functional security alarm system.

One of the standout features of this amazing property however is the grand entrance hall that cannot fail to impress. The beautifully maintained staircase is lit via the period stained glass windows which have been painstakingly maintained and imbue this amazing space with a real sense of the age and the grandeur it bestows.

The first floor continues the trend of bright, open and welcoming spaces with a pristine finish. Four well-appointed bedrooms are also accompanied by a luxurious family bathroom complete with roll top bath and separate walk in shower. The master bedroom also sports an impressive corner bay, offering an excellent vantage of Weelsby Road beyond.

Despite the property's considerable age, its condition remains excellent and practical upgrades such as sympathetic double glazing to remain in keeping, modern gas central heating system and electrical works and wiring that have passed a modern safety check means that this home still delivers a practical peace of mind that few dwellings of this age can boast.

There is so much to be found and appreciated here that no buyer could fail to find an aspect to like. From the period charm, enviable placement, aesthetic character or modern upgrades... this agent would highly recommend internal viewings to appreciate all that it has to offer.
